His Neck is Safe. The Shipman, the Eastman rioter, who was respited by Governor Colquitt on Thursday of last week on yesterday had his sentence commuted by Governor Colquitt to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life. There was some doubt as to whether his offense was murder in the first degree. It was undoubtedly as high an offense as murder in the second degree. The governor decided to give him a reprieve and not see him in a careful examination. Shipman's sentence commuted to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life.

A New Mail Route.

On Monday a route agent will be put on the Georgia Pacific railroad to run between Atlanta and Repeos. The mail will leave Atlanta at 7:30 a. m. and return at 5:30, p. m. The trains on the Georgia Pacific will begin running to Tallapoosa on Tuesday or Wednesday. The road is now ready for the trains but the new schedules have not yet been printed. The distance to Tallapoosa is sixty-three and a half miles. Everything is moving nicely with the new road.

An Important Rumor.

It is positively stated that on the first or second Sunday in November trains Nos. 52 and 53 on the Air-Line railroad will be discontinued. Mr. Talcott is said to have so stated to a gentleman who is interested in the matter and will be affected by the change. The reason assigned is that the road has not business enough to authorize the running of double daily trains between Atlanta and Charlotte. The trains referred to leave at 4 a. m. and arrive at 12:50 a. m. Double daily trains will run as usual on the road beyond Charlotte. Col. Sage says that the change has not been fully decided upon.

Gargantuan Giants.

There are giants in these days, just as there are dwarfs; but all the huge men and women who have occupied public attention of late years must pale before the huge British life guardsman, and his titanic wife, now with Forepaugh's great show. Had the great Frederick ever seen this gargantuan pair, he would have exhausted the treasury of Prussia to secure them. Harry and Eliza Alexander, from London, England, are together nearly nineteen feet long. When Harry wants a light for his cigar, when walking out, he gets it from a street lamp, and Mrs. Alexander has to stoop when she wishes to dust an average ceiling. Exhibit Atlanta November 11th.

Davis Seed Cotton Cleaner.

Colonel W. L. Goldsmith, of Atlanta, is meeting with great success selling the above excellent seed cotton cleaner for cleaning dirty, poddy and trashy cotton, sold five machines today to Montgomery paper mills, of Massachusetts, for cleaning dirt and seed from cotton notes for making paper. The machine is the only one that cleans the notes of all dirt and separates the seed from the notes. Notes thrown away which are worth $1,200,000 per annum in the South. We are also glad to learn that this cleaner took medal over all others at Raleigh, N. C., fair last week. Price only forty-five dollars. He wants agents for every town in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Texas. Oct 27-21 sat sun.

THE STANLEY BROTHERS.

Two Gwinnett County Men Who are Charged with Murder.

Yesterday Sheriff Patterson, of Gwinnett county, passed through the city on route home, having in custody Joseph Stanley, a young white man who is wanted in that county for murder. The charge against Stanley had its origin in 1874. In a difficulty near Buford Stanley killed a white man, named Davis, and fled before he could be captured. Since leaving home Stanley has been in Texas, Mississippi and Alabama. Recently he came back to Georgia and after visiting his home went to Chattooga county, where he was when captured on Tuesday last.

About two years ago Hosey Stanley, a brother of Joseph Stanley, killed a man near Buford. His victim was a negro, and also a Davis. Hosey Stanley was captured in Rome last week and both brothers are now in Gwinnett county awaiting trials.

In the commissioners court of W. C. Smith, Henry Freeman, of Fulton county, was committed in default of bond to await trial on a charge of illicit retailing of distilled spirits. Bud Turner, of Campbell county, was before commissioner W. B. Smith, charged with removing and concealing. He was required to give a bond of $300 for his appearance.

AN ATLANTA POET.

The Compliment Paid to an Eminent Presbyterian Clergyman of the City.

The LaGrange Reporter pays the following high compliment to an Atlanta poet: "Dr. Heidt ought to have the gratitude of the citizens of LaGrange for providing such a delightful feast for eyes and ears and intellect as that of last Monday night. It had been announced from the several pulpits on Sunday that Rev. J. H. Martin, D. D., late pastor of the first Presbyterian church in Atlanta, who was attending the presbytery of this church here, would deliver an original poem from the rostrum of the LaGrange festival, and that on that night, and that the entertainment would be varied with music. Accordingly, a very good audience assembled in the chapel at the appointed hour. Dr. Martin's recitation was of a high order. He read the poem with ease and grace and with a cadence of his verse rose and fell, we realized that it was even more beautiful than that which it portrayed. It abounded with pearls of thought, polished with rare grace and felicity of language. At the conclusion of the poem, Dr. Martin was presented by president Heidt, in behalf of the senior class, with a handsome bouquet.

ROBERT D. GARVIN.

An Old Atlanta Man in Trouble in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Charged with Murder.

Robert D. Garvin, an old Atlanta man, is in trouble in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Yesterday's CONSTITUTION contained a telegram from that place announcing the killing of Archie McDonald by Garvin, the killing having been occasioned by a drunken quarrel. McDonald was shot through the heart and Garvin was promptly arrested. Yesterday a CONSTITUTION reporter called at the home of Garvin's father on Decatur street, near the terminus of the street car line, to see if any news of the killing had been received by the family. The family had not even read the dispatch published in the paper, and the first news that they had of the killing was that carried to them by the reporter. Robert D. Garvin is a son of William Garvin, and a few years ago was well known here. He served his time as a fireman on the Western and Atlantic railroad, and attained to an engineering position. Subsequently he took a position on the Air Line, and in a fight at Charlotte one day nearly fatally shot a man. He was tried and acquitted, however. Garvin married a very beautiful woman, and the result of their union was a daughter—a very bright and pretty little girl. They did not live happily together, however, and the wife sued for divorce. The divorce was granted and then a struggle arose over the possession of the child. The child was finally awarded to the mother. Mrs. Garvin then married Mr. T. S. Gourdlin and they are now living at Tilton. About four years ago Garvin left Atlanta, going to Montgomery or Mobile. It is said that in Alabama he was tried for bigamy but that

The Progress of the Case in the Supreme Court of the State.

It was supposed that the Macon circuit would have been finished by this time and that the supreme court would yesterday have the case relative to the lease of the Western & Atlantic railroad. The case goes to the supreme court on an order of prohibition issued by that court to prevent Judge Willis from proceeding with the trial of the case by a jury. When the question of the sufficiency of the grand jury of the lessees and the question of the ownership of a unit of the road within the state of Georgia were raised before Judge Willis' counsel for the lessees argued two elaborate denunciations of which were overruled. Bills of exceptions were presented and Judge Willis certified them but ordered that the trial proceed in the court below on the merits of the case, notwithstanding the exception to his ruling on the denunciation. Counsel for the lessees applied to the supreme court for a writ of prohibition to prevent Judge Willis from hearing the case on its merits pending the appeal contained in the bill of exceptions signed by him. The application for prohibition was granted and the trial stopped in the court below. The supreme court will hear argument as to whether the case should proceed in spite of the exceptions to the rulings on the denunciations. It is thought that the Macon circuit will be concluded next Tuesday and this case will then come up for argument Wednesday. A sharp legal battle is anticipated.

A WORD TO OUR READERS

When you read a medicine that will cure all diseases, beware of it, for every scientific physician and chemist knows how fallacious such statements are. But when you read of a medicine compounded by a regular physician and surgeon of high standing that claims to cure only a certain disease, and furnishes high proof that it does this, you can safely rely on it. It is the assurance of the best physicians in the country. The following references should be sufficient to convince the most skeptical.

BURNETT'S COCAINE.

The Best and Cheapest Hair Dressing.

DR. J. BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR

WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.

It is well known to physicians, and almost too well known to suffering women themselves, that they are subject to numerous diseases peculiar to their sex, such as suppression of the Menes, painful and scanty Menstruation, Congestion, Ulceration and Failing of the Womb, attended with an endless train of sympathetic and constitutional disorders, which embitters the whole life, and which have long been considered as almost incurable. But at last the remedy has been found in

Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator.

It is not a "cure all," but a remedy for one class of diseases, all of which pertain to the Womb.

Any sufferer from the diseases mentioned can take this remedy, and thus relieve herself without revealing her condition to any one, and without subjecting her womanly modesty to the shock of an examination by a physician.

To bring health and happiness to the homes of suffering women is a mission before which royal favor sinks into insignificance. What earthly benefactor can compare with one which protects from "That dire disease whose ruthless power Withers beauty's transient flower?"

It gives ease for pain, joy for sorrow, smiles for tears, the rose of health for the pallor of disease, the light, elastic step for dragging weariness, nights of rest for heavy hours of tossing restlessness, bounding vigor for languishing dullness, the sweet life of full grown beauty for the life of mental, physical, social and domestic enjoyment for a few sad days of pain and gloom, ending in an early grave. Such is the mission, such are the results of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, which is hence truly and appropriately styled "Woman's Best Friend."

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.
 At the expiration of Alderman Beermann's term of office, the south side of the railroad will have no immediate representative in the aldermanic board, as there are two of the ones holding over from the north side. Justice demands that Alderman Beermann's successor should be from the south side of Atlanta and they present the name of that old,
 tried public spirited citizen, Major John H.
 McCalla, as a suitable man to fill the place and one that will be supported by the whole people of Atlanta.
